Important Information: Keep Your Certification In Good Standing

During the certification period, if any changes occur in the firm's legal structure, ownership, management, control, or work performed, you must notify the division immediately. Additionally, your business enterprise is required to maintain an accurate mailing address, email address and telephone number information with DSBO. Failure to report any of these changes may result in removal of your business enterprise from the Certification Directory, and possible revocation of certification of your business enterprise.

Please be aware that your firm's Minority/Women Business Enterprise (MWBE) certification is valid for three (3) years, but you are required to submit a no change affidavit and business taxes annually to verify eligibility. Every three (3) years you will need to submit a recertification application and have another on-site review. Please mark your calendar and begin the renewal process no less than ninety (90) days prior to your renewal date. Your application and all accompanying documents should be uploaded to the Small Business Certification and Contract Management System (<https://denver.mwdbe.com/>). The process may take up to 90 days. You will be notified prior to the expiration date that eligibility must be re-evaluated. However, if you do not receive notification from this office, it is your responsibility to keep your certification current. Failure to submit required documentation annually and triennially, your certification will be marked expired, removed as an active certification, and possible revocation of certification.
